

The Pastor's Corner

This week we will celebrate All Saints Day and All Souls Day on Tuesday, November 1 and Wednesday, November 2, respectively. This is the time of year when we focus on those who have completed their earthly life and have gone before us toward the heavenly homeland. On All Saints Day, we thank God for all the saints who have gone before us and have left us models of living our faith in their particular circumstances. They now live in the presence of God in eternal joy and are appropriately referred to as the Church Triumphant. On All Souls Day, we remember those who have gone before us but have not yet reached full union with God in heaven, and pray for those souls. They are in purgatory, and are referred to as the Church Suffering (not suffering in the sense of physical pain, but suffering because they suffer the lack of complete joy and peace that is given by God in heaven). These souls are also referred to as the Church Expectant, as one day they will know full union with God.

It is touching to see so many of you cleaning and repairing the graves of your family members in the cemetery, remembering that those who went before but rather are still a part of our Church, and the place that houses their earthly body, the temple of the Holy Spirit, should be cared for by us who remain. We will have our annual blessing of the cemetery at 4:30pm on All Saints Day prior to the 5:30pm Mass on that day.

A reminder that All Saints Day is a Solemnity and a Holy Day of Obligation, so we are obliged to attend Mass that day just as if it was a Sunday. The schedule of Masses is listed below. Because All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation, if one misses Mass that day without good reason, it is considered, objectively, to be a serious matter, and one should not receive Holy Communion without first making a Sacramental Confession. In addition, please note that our parish offices will be closed Monday and Tuesday in celebration of All Saints Day. Take care and God Bless,

Fr. James Brady

NOTICE

The office will be closed on Monday and Tuesday, October 31 and November 1.

The Mass schedule for All Saints' Day is as follows:

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

October 30, 2011

Page 218 in Missalette

Reading I Malachi 1:14b-2:2b. 8-10
 Worship the one God who created us, and keep faith with one another.

Psalms 131 "In you, Lord, I have found my peace."

Reading II 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13
 God is as a gentle mother caring for her children.

Gospel: Matthew 23:1-12
 Jesus teaches that we have only one master who is the Christ.

Today's readings describe a common trap in which believers often find themselves. We try to live according to the precepts and laws of the Church but, when we do so without regard for the poor and lowly of this world, we can find ourselves becoming smug and self-satisfied. The Lord Jesus warns his followers not to fall into this trap. Rather, he says, they must humble themselves as they strive to live out the law of the Lord. This is the only path to exalted glory with the Lord. The message is the same for us today. Let us be attentive to the saving word of God.

Rachel's Vineyard Retreats
 A Journey to Healing for Anyone Hurting After Abortion

A Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreat is an opportunity for any man, woman, couple, grandparent or sibling who struggles with the emotional or spiritual pain of abortion. This weekend retreat provides participants the opportunity and space to enter the grieving process; identify effects the abortion has had and release deep feelings of anger, shame, and guilt that frequently accompany an abortion experience. This unique retreat process is designed specifically to help retreatants experience the gentleness, mercy and compassion of Jesus as they walk the journey from pain to forgiveness.
 Participants re-connect on a spiritual level with the children who have been aborted and give them honor and dignity through many special exercises as well as in a memorial service. Those who journey through their grief allow God to transform their experience into one that brings hope, liberation and peace.
When: November 4-6 Friday, 6:00pm—Sunday, 3:00pm
Pre-registration is required.
 For more information and/or to register, call Karol or Trista at 261-5607.
