READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

January 29, 2012
Page 100 in Missalette

Reading I Deuteronomy 18:15-20
I will raise up a prophet and I will put my words into his mouth.

Psalms 95 "If today you hear his voice,, harden not your hearts."

Reading II 1 Corinthians 7:32-35
A virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28
He taught them as one having authority.

How faithful is our God to saving promises made from of old. Today, we hear Moses promise the people of Israel a future prophet who will speak in God's name. In Mark's Gospel, we see that promise fulfilled beyond all expectations in Jesus, who both teaches with authority and heals the deepest wounds of the human spirit. In the proclamation of God's living Word in our community today, Jesus again stands in our midst, teaching, healing and saving his people.

Immaculee

Building on the success of last year's retreat in Acadiana, Rwandan genocide survivor and best selling author, Immaculee Llibagiza is coming back to host a two-day retreat March 16-17 (Friday evening and Saturday) at the Cajundome.

The theme of the retreat is "Tools of our Faith", which can inspire us to grow closer to God and live the life full of meaning and purpose as God intended.

The Pastor's Corner

As a parish, it is always important to remember our history, live in the present, and to look forward to our future. This week, all three of these things come together. In our history, we celebrated this week, on January 24, the 100th birthday of Fr. Verbis Lafleur, whose life we celebrate each year on September 7 with a Memorial Mass, marking the date of his passing from this life and his birth to eternal life. When we think of exemplary lives, Fr. Lafleur is one of the crown jewels in the history of our parish. His life is recounted in his biography, "But He Dies Not," and if you have not had a chance to read it, the book is available here at the parish. It was not that long ago that Fr. Lafleur, as a young man, was sitting at our sacristy steps and met Msgr. Colliard. The rest is history!

We also live in the present and look forward to the future. This weekend, we begin Catholic Schools Week, a national celebration of Catholic Education. St. Landry, along with Opelousas Catholic, will celebrate this event with a jointly sponsored mission celebrating Catholic Education, featuring John Angotti, a nationally known musician and speaker. The schedule of events is below in this bulletin, and we hope to see you here!! Each of our children has a right to a Catholic Education, and this takes several forms: In our Catholic Schools; in home-schooling; and in CCD programs. During Catholic Schools week, we especially celebrate the gift AIC, Holy Ghost and now Opelousas Catholic have been to our community. As we see our children being educated and formed in this institution, we look forward to our future, with the hope of the building up of the Kingdom of God here on earth!

Fr. James Brady

REMINDER FOR CHILDREN

Children, don't forget to get your bulletins from Fr. Brady after Mass.

Pope Benedict's Intentions for January

General: That the victims of natural disasters may receive the spiritual and material comfort they need to rebuild their lives.

Mission: That the dedication of Christians to peace may bear witness to the name of Christ before all men and women of good will.

RCIA

The RCIA class for this week will be held on Tuesday, January 31 at 6:30pm in Valentin Hall.

This week the class will be discussing Matrimony, Sacramentals and Funerals.

Catholics who have not been confirmed; Catholics wishing to learn more about their Faith and anyone interested in learning more about Catholicism and/or joining the Catholic Church are invited to join these classes.

For more information contact Deacon John Miller at 942-2911.

New Diaconate Class

The Diocese of Lafayette is planning to form a new diaconate class and is currently making plans for it. Interviews will occur early next year at the diocese.

If you are interested in the diaconate program, please call Fr. Brady to make an appointment for an initial interview here at St. Landry so he can provide you more information.

Thanks, Fr. Brady
