Mass Page 266 in Missalette

Psalm 126
Reading II Hebrews 5:1-6
Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

Jeremiah's exultant vision in today's first reading, of God healing people and delivering them, is fulfilled in today's Gospel for Bartimaeus, when Jesus responds to his prayerful and persistent calling out by calling him to come and receive his sight.

EVANGELIZATION

The first mission of Outreach is to bring awareness of the presence of God and the Church to the community and so it does, but for the missionaries it always seems to bring an awareness of not only the first intention of Outreach but a sense of gratitude towards them. Outreach is not just for those that we go out to meet but also for you and me.

The Pastor's Corner

What beautiful weekends for our cemetery tours! The last two weekends were picture perfect, and the tours were a great success. It was also special because it was the 10th anniversary of the tours and Bishop Jarrell was here to celebrate mass and the anniversary with us.

There was much preparation and hard work put into this year's tours by many people. I want to thank the Cemetery Tour Committee and all those who supported, assisted and helped to make this year's tours such a great success. We also want to thank all who came and took the tour, both parishioners of St. Landry Church and our visitors.

In that regard, we are at the time of year when we remember fondly those who have passed into the next life before us, those who have left behind the gift of faith which is now handed to us. We especially remember our deceased loved ones on All Saints Day, which is November 1, and All Souls Day, which is Nov. 2.

Also, All Saints Day, which is this coming Thursday, is a Holy Day of obligation, which means that it is just like a Sunday, in that we are obligated to attend mass in celebration of the feast day. This obligation is a serious obligation, and one who does not fulfill this obligation without serious reason, should not receive Holy Communion until going to Confession.

Sisters of Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries

Sisters from the Mary, Queen of Heaven Missionaries will be here this weekend selling handmade rosaries after all the masses. Proceeds are used to help vulnerable women and children who are victims of prostitution and human trafficking in the Philippines by providing a safe home for them, namely the "HOME OF LOVE". Bishop Jarrel has given permission for this activity in the diocese. We do not do this very often at St. Landry, but considering October is a month dedicated to our Blessed Mother, the devotion our parish has in praying the rosary, and the worthy cause for which the proceeds will be used, it seemed fitting for this weekend. Please stop by the tables in the back of the Church and see if there is anything that you might like, or might be appropriate for a Christmas gift!
