The Pastor's Corner

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King, the end of the Church's liturgical year. This celebration is a reminder to us that Jesus can help us to overcome any problem we might have if we let Him reign in our lives. The primary goal of our life here on earth is to live with God in eternity in the next life, and as Christians this must be our first priority. We make this our first priority by following God's commands as He teaches us through His Church in Sacred Scripture and Tradition, and by cooperating with God's Grace by living a life of virtue and prayer in Faith, Hope and Charity. No matter what the circumstances in our lives here on earth, we always have the hope of eternal life in heaven, and nothing on earth has the power to take that away from us. Today we celebrate this gift God has given to us, and we renew our motivation to live a life on earth worthy of the eternal life God has promised, praising Christ our King!

God Bless!

Fr. James Brady

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

November 25, 2012

Mass Page 280 in Missalette

Reading I Daniel 7:13-14
 His dominion is an everlasting dominion.

Psalm 93 "The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty."

Reading II Revelation 1:5-8
 The ruler of the kings of the earth has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father.

Gospel: John 18:33b-37
 You say I am a king.

The Old Testament reading and Gospel present Christ's kingship as mystery and paradox. Although Jesus stands before Pilate as a condemned criminal, he is in truth, the Son, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion and whose kingship shall not be taken away, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead and ruler of the kings of earth. Let us, therefore, listen to God's word today with gratitude to Jesus, who loves us and frees us from our sins by his blood, making us a kingdom and a priestly people in the service of his God and Father.
